California Progressive Alliance (CPA) Bylaws

These Bylaws were Adopted by CPA membership (group members and individual members) at our Founding Convention, March 30-31, 2019 and amended by CPA members on June 14, 2020. To see the amendments via tracked changes of specific parts of the initial document, click HERE.

Below are the current bylaws as amended.

Article I: Mission Statement

The California Progressive Alliance (CPA) is a statewide independent volunteer network of progressive individuals and organizations united by our shared belief that a better California is possible by reclaiming our government from the corporate and moneyed interests that have overshadowed the voice of the people. Together–regardless of party affiliation or no party affiliation–we seek to (1) elevate progressive ideas throughout the state, (2) promote the creation of local political alliances and people-powered coalitions to enact progressive change in local government, (3) support corporate-free progressive candidates and progressive issue-based electoral campaigns, and (4) wield our collective power to lobby the state legislature on current and future legislation, as well as research and write new model legislation.

A. We define “progressive” as anything or anyone that has a predilection for poor, working class (including the diminishing middle class), and historically marginalized communities, and that works to actively elevate, rather than harm, these communities. This applies to issues, individuals, organizations, legislation, and overall narrative.

B. We define “corporate-free” candidates as those taking no corporate or business money, including no money from LLCs, LLPs, or small businesses. While we support business and entrepreneurship–especially small independent businesses–and their right to make a decent profit, we believe that money from business accounts should not be a part of our electoral and political process. We strongly denounce corporate PACs and are unwavering in our belief that corporations are not people.

Article II: Core Values

A. We believe in a California for all. A better California is possible through our collective efforts to unify the different populations that make-up our diverse state. A truly progressive agenda requires a united effort to take on the problems and challenges of economic, political, and racial inequality, criminal justice reform, and the environmental crisis. We must function as a united front to protect our children’s future, our infrastructure, and our social safety nets.

B. We believe Democracy is about people, not corporations. Large corporations wield too much power in our society, not only economically, but politically as well. We refuse contributions from corporations in all our activities and campaigns, and instead position ourselves as a levy against corporate power through the collective and voluntary efforts of progressive individuals and organizations.

C. We believe Democracy is about government being transparent. Government should be responsive to the will of the people through fair and clean elections and through sustained political engagement. Elected officials should serve the public honestly and must represent their constituents and communities, not corporate donors. We must end the backroom politics that have corrupted our political system. Democracy should be of, by, and for the people.

D. We believe in Diversity and respect for each other's ideas, norms, language, culture, and history. We are a diverse Alliance of people who live and work in California, some for many generations and some who are recent immigrants. We aim to unify progressives around policy, not labels. We welcome people of any party affiliation, no-party affiliation (NPP), and people of all backgrounds who may be unable to vote. We agree on the need to build a strong progressive movement where people support each other.

E. We believe that successful progressive movements build power for all people. We recognize that historical realities, the economic system, disparate educational opportunities, and unequal distribution of resources give form to an uneven social structure. In all of our activities, internal and external, we will prioritize the needs and development of those who are disadvantaged by the social, political, and economic system: people of color, women, LGBTQIA, young people, seniors, low income people, immigrants, and disabled individuals.

F. We believe in a strong progressive agenda for justice and equality. We are committed to actively promoting social, racial, ecological, and environmental justice; gender, economic, and political equality; healthcare and housing as a human right, climate solutions that transition us to green energy with living wage jobs and job retraining for displaced workers, and a fair and vibrant democracy. We will not always agree on every issue or strategy but we actively welcome ideas, input, and participation as we invite more Californians, particularly those from marginalized communities, into this Alliance.

Appendix A

CPA Basic Guidelines for Endorsement of Candidates Running for Public Office (as referred to in Article VII, Section 2 (G) of the by-laws)

The Endorsement Recommendation Team (ERT) will be an Action Team of the CPA and shall be responsible for proposing Candidate Endorsements to the Steering Committee (SC). Candidates who are not recommended by the ERT may make a request to the Steering Committee that they also be considered for endorsement. The SC will make a determination based on whether or not these additional candidates share the mission and values of the CPA. Ultimately, at a membership convening, the CPA membership will decide those races (including primary races and general election races) in which the CPA will consider endorsement, with the caveat that any candidate considered must share the organization’s mission and values.

The ERT will communicate with candidates running for public office who are seeking CPA endorsement and will create a questionnaire (or questionnaires) for circulation, to be filled out by the candidate or official representative of the candidate. Candidates seeking elected offices including but not limited to the CA State Assembly, CA State Senate, CA State Constitutional offices, US Congress (representing California) or US Senate (representing California) can seek out the endorsement of the CPA and will be provided a questionnaire. All questionnaires for candidates should include, at a minimum, questions based on #1 and #2 below:

1. Candidates interested in receiving the endorsement of the CPA must vow to not take campaign donations from corporations (which includes money from all businesses, large and small), development firms, law firms and/or charter school associations. Our view is that the profit motive must be kept out of our electoral process. We are also very clear on the notion that corporations are not people. We do think it is acceptable to take money from unions, since unions are people fighting for their rights within corporate entities. Do you agree to not take money from corporations, developers, law firms and charter schools? Do you agree to publicly denounce any support for you coming from any PACs or 501c4s that are funded by corporations or charter school associations?

2. It is our view that candidates should also be organizers. This means candidates endorsed by the CPA must understand the importance of organizing a movement in order to address issues in line with progressive values. If an endorsed candidate of the CPA wins their election, it is our view that they should continue to play a role in organizing the movement, alongside the CPA and other progressive organizations. Do you agree that elected officials must also be organizers of the community and will you work with the CPA in continuing to organize our statewide movement if elected?

Questions should also be included to determine a candidate’s position on issues that the CPA has deemed to be important and urgent for that election cycle. Questionnaires could also include questions specific to various districts, cities, and regions.

After questionnaires are reviewed by the ERT, they will also conduct candidate interviews of those candidates who line up with our values and mission.

Endorsement recommendations made by ERT and any additional candidates will be reviewed and voted on by the Steering Committee and then brought to the membership-at-large for a ratification vote. Ranked Choice Voting procedure will be utilized to determine CPA endorsements.

If a candidate or officeholder changes their position on a major CPA policy or platform issue endorsements will be publically revoked, with the consent of 50% plus one of the membership.

Note: Endorsements of ballot measures and/or ballot propositions shall be taken up by the membership with a similar process.
Appendix B

Guidelines for Process of Nominating new Steering Committee (see also Article VII, Section 3 of By-laws)

The Nomination Committee (NC) will be appointed by the Steering Committee (SC) and set up a brief questionnaire with just a few questions to ascertain why a nominee wants to serve. The questionnaire will be circulated to all sitting SC members to determine their interest in continuing to serve and if so what officer position they would like to apply for or if they want to be considered for an at-large member seat. The criteria for service on the SC and any other relevant information to the election will be included on the questionnaire.

The NC will also reach out to various members who are thought to be interested in running and circulate the questionnaire to them. In addition, the Steering Committee will put out a call by email circulating the questionnaire for interested members to apply and/or nominate others.

Based on answers to the questions, and follow up interviews, the NC will propose recommendations for the 3 officer positions and 10 at-large members. Any Officer positions that remain open will be filled by additional At-Large members in order to maintain an 13-person Steering Committee. The roles and functions of unfilled Officer positions will be fulfilled by the Steering Committee as a whole.

The NC’s recommendations, along with other qualifying nominees seeking a seat, will be presented to the sitting SC for review and circulated to the membership for a vote. The completed questionnaires of all qualifying nominees will be included in the circulation.

Officer positions will be determined by Ranked Choice Voting. At-large members will be determined by a majority vote; slots will be allocated to the top vote-getters.

Appendix C

Function and Guidelines for Ally Organizations (see also Article IV, Section 1 of By-laws)

Given that membership in the California Progressive Alliance (CPA) is limited to individuals, outside organizations are encouraged to be part of the CPA as Allies. An “Ally” is defined as an organization that has agreed to partner with the CPA in an effort to organize and generate support for progressive issues and legislation. Ally organizations are encouraged to work closely with CPA Action Teams. In this regard Allies are de facto local ground teams for CPA initiatives and may be called upon to support official organizational efforts with their internal membership. Allies are encouraged to notify the Steering Committee and Action Teams of events and local or regional issues and request that the CPA endorse, publicize, or co-sponsor them. The CPA Steering Committee may also rely on Ally organizations for advice and recommendations.

Allied organizations will be part of a statewide database, which will be available to CPA general membership for organizing and recruitment purposes.

While each Ally is subject to its own existing bylaws, rules, and principles, it must adhere to the CPA Mission Statement, Core Values, and bylaws when working with or on behalf of the CPA as an Ally entity.

Group leadership from within each Ally organization will be expected to review, sign, and submit an Ally Sign-On form and commitment agreement. Every Ally request shall be reviewed by the Steering Committee before the organization is officially accepted as an Ally of the CPA. Upon approval by the Steering Committee each organization is encouraged to make a financial contribution to the CPA for our statewide infrastructure-building. The CPA suggests that Ally contributions reflect the size and resources of the Ally organization.

Political endorsements by individual Ally organizations do not reflect official endorsement by the CPA of that same candidate or issue. The CPA and its Allies will make endorsement decisions individually and independently. Allies are not expected to endorse and support every candidate, bill, measure or action that the California Progressive Alliance endorses. Some organizations, those that have 501c3 status, are required by law to abstain from making candidate endorsements. CPA welcomes 501c3s as Ally Organizations and has no expectation that a 501c3 Ally will be involved in or adhere to the CPA candidate endorsement process. No candidate or ballot measure proponent can claim that any of our individual Ally groups endorses them, only that CPA endorses, and vice versa. Ally organizations may use the CPA logo and affiliation only in such a way that is consistent with these guidelines.

The Steering Committee reserves the right to revoke the Ally status of an organization if at any point it determines the specific group is acting in clear violation of the CPA’s Mission Statement and Core Values.
